If the grant application is approved, our Foundation would like to share your experiences with potential donors, OCYC members, and others. This allows us to demonstrate how beneficial our grants and scholarships are for our community and helps us fundraise to support maritime education and activities.

That is why we request a written report (no more than a page) within two weeks of the completed event to the OCYC Foundation on what was gained from the event, as well as ask you or a representative of your organization to participate in photos and appearances or provide testimonials with respect to the experience. Do you agree to this commitment? Yes _____ No _____

If for any reason the maritime activity event does not occur, do you agree to promptly return the grant funds to the OCYC Foundation? Yes _____ No _____
